

EcoGrandPrix Privacy Policy

This privacy policy has been compiled to better serve those who are concerned with how their personal data is being used online. Personal data is information that can be used on its own or with other information to identify, contact, or locate a single person, or to identify an individual in context. Please read our privacy policy carefully to get a clear understanding of how we collect, use, protect or otherwise handle your personal data in accordance with our website.

The processing of personal data that you provide on this website will be done by Eco Grand Prix N.G.O., in accordance with the rules set by Regulation 2016/679 of the European Parliament and the Council, more commonly known as “GDPR” (General Data Protection Regulation).

What personal data do we collect from people who visit our website and/or drivers and/or teams?

When registering for any of the events on our website, as appropriate, we will collect from you the following personal data:

- full name;
- e-mail address;
- postal address;
- invoicing address;
- phone number.

This information is needed, as the case may be, to help you with your registration, or ship your order, or subscribe you to the newsletter, or process your request and to fulfill legal and contractual obligations. Furthermore, we will collect your IP address when browsing our website, which will be used to geo-locate your position, with approximation.

Credit card information, if supplied, is collected by a third-party gateway provider and we do not have access to this information.

When do we collect personal data?

We collect personal data from you when you register on our website, place an order in our shop, or otherwise enter information on our website, depending on your interaction with our website.

How do we use your personal data?

The personal data we collect from you when you register, make a purchase, sign up for our newsletter, respond to a survey or marketing communication, surf the website, or use certain other site features, is used in the following ways:

- to enable us to register you in one of our events;
- to process your order, if you buy something from the shop, as part of our contractual relationship with you;
- to personalize your experience with EcoGrandPrix;
- for safety and security reasons, in order to investigate suspicious activity or violations of our terms and conditions;
- to improve our website in order to better serve you;
- to process your transactions;
- to send periodic e-mails regarding your order or other events that we may be organizing.

Your name and invoicing address will be stored for the duration of our contractual relationships, and afterwards only in order to fulfill legal obligations regarding fiscal regulations, for the period of time required in such legislation. If you subscribed to our newsletter, your e-mail address will be stored for an undetermined period of time, in order to deliver to you news and information about EcoGrandPrix events, through our newsletter service. Should you decide you do not wish to receive this sort of information, your e-mail address will also be deleted, upon unsubscribing. However, we will have to keep a record of your un-subscription request. Your phone number, if provided, will only be used in connection with one of the events you registered in, for communication purposes.

What is the basis for processing personal data?

We collect, use and share your personal data for the following purposes:

- consistent with your consent, where case may be, which you can revoke at any time;
- in order to fulfill contractual relationships with you;
- as necessary to comply with legal obligations;
- as necessary for our legitimate interests, including our interest in providing a quality, reliable and safe experience to our users, unless those interests are overridden by your interests or fundamental rights and freedoms that require the protection of your personal data.

How do we protect your personal data?

Your personal data is stored on the servers operated by EcoGrandPrix. The servers are hosted in a secure area, that utilizes electronic surveillance and control systems. Regarding the information you provide to us, it is only accessible by a limited number of persons who have special access rights to such systems and are required to keep the information confidential.

Furthermore, our website is scanned on a regular basis for security holes and known vulnerabilities in order to make your visit to our site as safe as possible.

We use regular Malware Scanning.

We implement a variety of security measures when a user places an order, enters, submits, or accesses their personal data to maintain the safety of such personal data.

All transactions are processed through a gateway provider and are not stored or processed on the servers we have access to. In addition, all credit card information you supply is encrypted via Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology.

Traffic information, however, can pass through channels that are outside the European Union.
